Stockholm, July 31.

THE Marqueſs d'Antin received on the 18th Inſtant a Preſent from the King of Sweden, conſiſting of two Diamond Rings, one for himſelf, and the other for his Lady, one valued at 4000, the other at 3000 Rixdollars, a Gold Snuff-box with a Brilliant in the Middle of the Lid, and a Sword with a Gold Hilt; the Amount of the whole reckoned at 10000 Crowns. The Marqueſs and his Officers who ſupped that Evening with their Swediſh Majeſties, took their Leave; the King of Sweden being to go the next Morning to Swartſcio to take the Diverſion of Shooting. On the 21ſt between Four and Five in the Morning the Marqueſs d'Antin made a Signal for weighing Anchor, and before Seven M. Barrail in the Fleuron, who had the Rear, was under Sail, but juſt by Weyholme his Ship ſtruck againſt a Rock, and received ſuch Damage, that the Marqueſs d'Antin ſent to acquaint M. St. Severin the French Ambaſſadour here, that as there was no Port in Sweden but this and Carlſcrona, where the Damage could be repair'd, he deſign'd to proceed on his Voyage, and hoped that the Fleuron would be allow'd to go into Carlſcrona to refit. On the 25th arrived another Expreſs from the Marqueſs d'Antin to M. St. Severin. The French Squadron was then but ſix Leagues off, and the Wind contrary; but the Fleuron had been ſo well repair'd, that it was hoped ſhe was in a Condition to proceed on her Voyage without putting into Carlſcrona, though the Ambaſſadour was ſtill deſired to procure a proviſional Leave in Caſe of Neceſſity. The King of Sweden return'd the 24th to Carlberg from taking the Diverſion of Shooting, and the next Night M. St. Severin and his Lady took Leave there of their Swediſh Majeſties. The Beginning of laſt Week General Cronſtedt ſet out for his Command in Finland, and two Regiments ſailed from Carlſcrona the 13th with a fair Wind.

From the Camp of the Imperialiſts near Haczey in Tranſylvania, Aug. 1. We have received Advice at this Camp, that the Turks being informed we were on the March, under the Command of the Prince of Lobcowitz, towards the Bannat, drew together near Bukereſt a Body of 8000 Men, and went and attack'd a Fort which we have in Walachia called Periſhan, and from the 26th of laſt Month fired upon it with five Pieces of Cannon; that they made three Aſſaults, in which they were bravely repulſed with great Loſs by the Garriſon commanded by General Picolomini, and by the Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Harrach, with no more Loſs on our Side than of one Man. Precaution had been uſed to barricade all the Avenues to the Place by large Trees fell'd acroſs them, and to poſt German Foot mixed with Heidukes Natives of the Country, to defend them; who all did their Duty perfectly well when the Turks attempted to force the Paſſages on the back of the Fort, beating them off with great Loſs. The Garriſon having afterwards made a Sally and being joyned by more of thoſe Heidukes, routed the Turks intirely, took their Cannon, Baggage, their whole Camp, and their Proviſions and Ammunition. General Picolomini and the ſaid Lieutenant Colonel, as well as the regular Forces and Militia, diſtinguiſhed themſelves very much on this Occaſion.

From the Imperial Army encamp'd at Jaboka, Aug. 5. On the 2d Inſtant the Army reſted in the Camp near Panchova, but at giving out the Word it was order'd that the ſame Evening the Baggage ſhould be ſent back to our former Camp at Jaboka. On the 3d the Army followed. Yeſterday and to Day we lay ſtill. The Enemy have not drawn together again, as it was reported they had, two Leagues beyond Panchova, their main Body keeping at Vipalanka: But they have ſent out ſtrong advanced Guards to Panchova, to obſerve our Motions: And we have Intelligence that they are reſolved to return thither, and even to advance towards us. Marſhal Wallis ſeems determin'd to wait their coming in this Camp, becauſe it is moſt advantagiouſly ſituated.

Vienna, Aug. 15, N. S. By Letters from the Ruſſian Army of the 23d paſt O. S. it is adviſed, that Marſhal Munich had paſſed the Dnieſter with a very conſiderable Body that very Day, at or near a Place called Sinchova; where that River being nearer its Source, is more ſhallow than at Choczin: That the reſt of the Army with the heavy Baggage under General Romanzoff was expected to paſs alſo the ſame Evening: That Marſhal Munich had immediately after his Paſſage ſent out a Party to forage, which had been attack'd by a Body of Tartars, and that the latter had been repuls'd, after skirmishing two Hours. The Russian Army consists of 60000 Men, whereof 47000 are regular Troops, the rest Cossacks. In their Train of Artillery they have 62 Cannon, 11 Mortars, 16 Haubitzers, 156 Field Pieces, 392 small Mortars call'd Cohornes; and 3000 Men are employed apart to attend and serve this Artillery. By a Letter of the 5th Instant from Belgrade we are informed, that the Earl of Crawford who had signalized himself in the Action at Krotzka, and being wounded was brought for Cure to Belgrade, was so well recovered as to be judged out of Danger.

Berlin, Aug. 15, N. S. According to our last Letters from Pomerania, the King of Prussia proposes to be here by To-morrow Evening. By the same Letters we hear his Majesty has been pleased to make the following Promotions in his Army, viz. M. Kehder, Felt-Marshal; Majors-General Bodenbroke, Flantz, Platen, and Sonsfeldt, Lieutenants-General; Colonels Muhlendorff and Gesler, Majors-General. They talk of two new Generals of Horse, but they are not yet declared. Yesterday arrived here Prince Tzerbatow, the Czarina's Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Great Britain, and he designs to proceed To-morrow Morning on his Journey to England.

Dresden, Aug. 16, N. S. Their Polish Majesties went on the 11th Instant from Toplitz to Brandeis, hunted there on the 12th, and on the 13th return'd hither. Their Majesties have received great Benefit from the Baths. To-morrow the Court goes to Freyberg, three or four Miles from hence, where there is to be a great Hunting on the 18th and 19th. The King and Queen of Poland will return on the 20th Instant, and set out on the 21st for Fraustadt. M. Keyserling, the Russian Minister here, received Yesterday Morning an Estafette from Count Munich, acquainting him that he had cross'd the Dniester with the Forces under his Command.
